

Turning Research Into Results

Intellidig is an indispensable resource for business leaders making critical strategic decisions.

Intellidig is a specialized research firm that delivers human capital intelligence and innovative talent sourcing to business leaders.

Talent Intelligence

Support the “people” side of business decisions through customized research designed to add clarity to the decision process.

Competitive Intelligence

- How do you compare to the competition?

Growth Intelligence

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Business relocation and expansion
- Get details regarding the key talent-based success factors for your growth plans

Customized Intelligence

- Diversity studies

Talent Acquisition

Project-based services that support your internal Human Resources team.

Talent Identification

- Labour market studies
- Talent pipelines
- Succession support
- Talent analytics

Recruitment

- Focus on passive candidate sourcing
- Identify, qualify and attract talent
- Attraction and retention package research

“Intellidig has been a high performing strategic business partner. Their quality is backed by accountability, transparency and performance metrics.”

Deloitte & Touche

“Intellidig has an unparalleled ability to identify people and engage them, then transform that real time information into powerful insights that can be applied immediately for better business performance.”

GE Canada